

An abstract artwork by Jon Campbell. The composition is a dense, layered collage of various geometric and organic shapes. A large, dark, curved shape dominates the lower left. A thick, red, angular shape extends from the bottom center towards the right. A large, light-colored circle with a dark outline is positioned in the upper right. A green, U-shaped element is on the left. A black, zigzag line is in the center. The background is a mix of purple, blue, and beige tones. The overall style is bold and expressive, with a focus on color and form.
