

Louise Weaver

Ecstatic horizon

at
The Renshaws, Brisbane
in collaboration with
Darren Knight Gallery, Sydney

16 May - 21 June 2025

Ecstatic horizon features woven paintings that combine hand-painted Japanese paper and linen thread, creating a dialogue between poetic landscape and vivid abstraction. Weaver's practice is influenced by the dynamics and fragility of the natural world, as well as environmental, social and feminist themes. Through her orchestration of colour, texture and structure she investigates the interplay of order and coincidence, revealing a complex interconnected universe of fragile beauty that is both real and imagined.

Louise Weaver was born in 1966 in Mansfield, Victoria and currently lives and works in Naarm/Melbourne.

She has exhibited regularly since 1993. Recent museum exhibitions include: The John Norman Mann Bequest, Geelong Gallery, Victoria (2025), Hair Pieces, Heide Museum of Modern Art, Melbourne (2024), nightshifts, Buxton Contemporary, Melbourne (2023), Bewilderness: Recent Acquisitions, Art Gallery of South Australia, Adelaide (2023), and Phenomena, Geelong Gallery, Victoria (2023).

Weaver's work was the subject of an extensive survey exhibition, Between Appearances: The Art of Louise Weaver curated by Melissa Keys at Buxton Contemporary, Melbourne in 2019-2020.

Her work is held in public and private collections including the British Museum, London, Art Gallery of New South Wales, Sydney, Queensland Art Gallery/GAGOMA, Brisbane, National Gallery of Victoria, Melbourne, Museum of Contemporary Art, Sydney, Art Gallery of South Australia, Adelaide, National Gallery of Australia, Canberra, Monash University Collection, Melbourne, Chartwell Collection, Auckland Art Gallery, New Zealand and Artbank, Australia.

Ecstatic horizon is Louise Weaver's first solo exhibition in Brisbane.

Louise Weaver would like to dedicate Ecstatic horizon to her father, Barry Weaver (1934 - 2025).
